FACTS

about mental health and learning disability

people in the UK will 01 experience a mental health problem every year – and one in six people in England report experiencing a common mental health problem – like depression or anxiety - every week

About 2% of the population has a learning disability – and these people are also likely to have poorer physical health than other people

04

More than 94%

05

10 in 20 people aged over 65 will have dementia. This becomes 1 in 5 for people aged over 80 and 1 in 3 for people aged over 90

03

People with serious other people

1 in 10 children

in Devon has a mental health problem

06

1 in 5 people admitted to hospital in Devon has dementia

02

The most deprived areas of Devon see the highest levels of serious mental illness cause of death in men aged under 45 and mothers